(BULLETIN.)

Paris, Nov. 3.—Complete and crushing repulse of the Bulgarians in their attack on the French troops in southern Serbia near Krivolak, was officially announced today.

(BULLETIN.)

Berlin, Nov. 3.—The city of Usitce (Uzice) in northwestern Serbia, has been captured by the Germans, has been officially announced. This is a most important vantage ground.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Gen. von Hindenburg has been forced to withdraw his lines between Swenton and the Ilsen Lakes in the north end of the Russian front, it was officially announced today. This retirement apparently means that the German commander is abandoning his attacks from the west and southwest on the Russian stronghold of Dvinak, which he has been trying to capture for months.

Durable Peace Only Way.

Paris, Nov. 3.—France will not sign a peace agreement until after a restoration, by right of victory, and until she shall have obtained all guarantees necessary of a durable peace," said Premier Briand today.

Deny Peace Terms Story.

Madrid, Nov. 3.—Formal denial is made in a statement issued by the German embassy that Prince von Buelow intends to discuss possible peace terms here and in Washington. A dispatch from Corunna says the former chancellor of Germany, who is now in Switzerland, where he was reported to have been sent by his government to initiate peace negotiations, is expected to arrive here aboard the Dutch steamer Tubantia.

FAT PORKER HOLDS UP LIMITED TRAIN

Shenandoah, Ia., Nov. 3.—A 300-pound hog held up the through limited on the Keokuk and Western railroad, between Yorktown and Norwich, recently. The pig was not on the track, but in the express car.

The pig was crated at Clarinda and put on the car destined for some breeder of fancy stock west of there. The rocking of the train displeased his majesty's pigship and he naturally backed out of the crate. The express messengers drove him into the crate again, and he walked through and out of the other end, and then took possession of the whole car, rooting around among the packages, regardless of the protests of the two-legged occupants of the car.

The express business was being rapidly demoralized when the conductor was appealed to. He stopped the train and backed to Yorktown, and the pig was ejected. A stronger crate was built and the pig was reloaded next day.

THE WAR A YEAR AGO TODAY

Nov. 3, 1914.
Germans gained ground east of Soissons and Vailly.
Allies checked Germans in Artois region.
Belgians trapped Germans at Furnes by ruse.
Austrians stormed Sabao.
British cruiser bombarded Akabah, Arabia, and sailors occupied the town.
Turks threatened Suez canal.
British submarine D-5 sunk by mine in North sea.
Rockefeller Foundation relief ship sailed for Europe.

MUCH BUSINESS GOES
BEFORE COUNTY COURTALL MATTERS BEARING ON ES-TATES OF DEPARTED CITIZENS
CAREFULLY HANDLED

The county court is always in session. The busiest place at the court house is the county court. Each day a large list of legal business is put into the hopper, bearing on many matters. Claims filed against estates and a hundred other little details bearing on the estate of departed citizens must be carefully attended to. The records in the county court just now are in splendid shape and lawyers generally are lavish in their praise of the present system.

Following are a few matters before the court today:

W. M. Sanders, administrator of the estate of Zabira A. Sanders has filed his return and account of sale of real estate. The property sold consisted of lots in Durant, and were bought by J. A. Dearing for $810. The hearing on the return was set for November 16.

B. F. Harriman, administrator of the estate of Angelina Harriman, has filed a final report in the county court and asks for a final discharge upon making proper distribution to the heirs.

Letters of administration with will annexed has been issued to Arno Beyer of the estate of Cornelius N. Bullenburgh. The court appointed R. M. Barr, James Shaffer and Earl Pickens to appraise the property belonging to the estate.

D. L. Long, guardian of John Carter, minor child of John R. Carter, has filed his annual report in the county court. He reports that the said ward has reached his majority and gone from the custody of the guardian.

Saunders M. Nealis, executor of the estate of Amanda Nealis has rendered his final account in the county court and asks for his final discharge.

In the matter of the estate of Andrew Tellaro, the last will and testament of the deceased was duly proved before the county court and was duly allowed and admitted to probate. Letters of administration with will annexed were issued to Anthony Tellaro upon his filing a bond in the sum of $3,500. H. B. Gooch, Lee Gooch and Joseph Wood were appointed appraisers.

A final report has been filed in the county court by Marion L. Barnes, administrator of the estate of Geo.

HIGHEST DEGREE
IN MASONRY
CONFERRED HEREGENERAL HAILEY, UNDER SPECIAL DISPENSATION,
MAKES 4 THIRTY-THIRDS

Four thirty-third degree Masons were made in the Masonic temple in Guthrie Tuesday night.

This is the first instance of the kind in the history of the southwest. The Scottish Rite supreme council in solemn session, biennially, at Washington, confers the thirty-third degree on men who have previously been honored by the council with the K. C. C. H.—Knight Commander of the Court of Honor. A K. C. C. H. is supposed to have achieved this rank by meritorious service in the consistory. The thirty-second degree Mason who even intimates that he is desirous of court honors never rises. The "favored" are supposed to be in the dark.

At the last session of the supreme council in Washington, eleven K. C. C. H. men were made thirty-third degree men. Five of them received court honors six years ago. Four were unable to go to Washington. Sovereign Inspector General Hailey procured a special dispensation and on Tuesday night he conferred the thirty-third degree on John Land, of Muskogee, William P. Griffin, of Carnegie, Ray Woods, of Sapulpa and C. B. Hill of Fort Supply. The ceremony was elaborate and was witnessed by fifteen third degree Masons, and by fifteen thirty-third degree Masons.

Uncle Sam's Newest Dreadnought, Showing 3-Gun
Turrets, as She Went Under Brooklyn Bridge

The newest, and perhaps the mightiest of Uncle Sam's dreadnoughts is about to begin her trials, and this photograph of her was taken as she went under Brooklyn bridge on her way to the New York navy yard to be prepared for her trial trips. The Nevada carries ten fourteen inch guns, and no other battleship in the world is arranged with three of such enormous guns in one turret.

The Nevada has two such turrets, one forward and the other aft. The three guns of each turret are four, ten-inch and forty-five caliber. These guns will be fired in salvos of three guns each. There are two other turrets on the Nevada, one forward and one aft and arranged to the rear of the three-gun turrets and rising above them. These turrets each have two fourteen-inch guns.

Besides the four turrets with their ten fourteen-inch guns, the new dreadnought fairly bristles with five-

CHRISTIAN FACILITIES AND BAD RESULTS

Dr. Smiley took for his Tuesday evening text James 2:14-26, using the last verse on which to build the climax of his strong appeal for more consecrated work among the faithful followers of Jesus. It was a deep, earnest appeal for "Faith and Works," and it made the nice distinction between where James was speaking directly to professed Christians while Paul was telling the unconverted how to make their start toward securing salvation. Paul's hearers were those who believed, in some degree, but not strong enough to induce them to make a confession; failed to go far enough. James was preaching to those Christians who, like so many of today, were trying to make their faith carry them over the river. It is best illustrated by the ferryman who said, suppose I had this car represent faith and use it alone, we would go nowhere; we would simply travel around in a circle. That is

PROF. SCOTT TELLS OF EFFI-CIENCY, ALSO RECOUNTS
SOME HANDICAPS

At the regular monthly meeting of the city school board yesterday Superintendent Thos. Scott submitted his first monthly report on the conditions of the city schools under his management. Prof. Scott is progressing nicely and apparently is filling a long felt want. School conditions in the city were never better with teachers and pupils all working harmoniously.

The report of Professor Scott follows:

Board of Education, Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit herewith my first monthly report to your body. The schools opened September 20, with an enrollment over that of the previous year. At the close of the first month there are 2,009 pupils enrolled as against 1,755 the first month of 1914. This increased enrollment of 254 has filled all the classes and in some cases has over-crowded them. The Banner and Capitol schools each have an average enrollment of 34

HAWKINS, AN ACTRESSMUSKOGEE GIRL, LOST TO SIGHT FOR MANY YEARS,
INHERITS ESTATE

Special to The Daily Leader.

Muskogee, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Rena Hawkins of Muskogee, a half-sister of J. G. Callens, who died in Hereford, Texas, a year ago, was Monday afternoon in the superior court declared to be the rightful and legal heir to the Callens estate, and was awarded a judgment for $1,000 against the Woodmen of the World on a life insurance policy left by Callens.

Found After Many Years.

The case is one of the strangest in the annals of the courts of Muskogee. Callens took out a $1,000 life insurance policy in the Woodmen of the World, payable to his wife. Then his wife died and he had the policy changed, making it payable to his brother J. T. Callens, of Corsicana, Texas. Then came the death of J. T. Callens. The policy, however, was never changed, and legally the money should go to J. G. Callens' nearest blood relative. Then Callens himself died at his home in Hereford, Texas.

It was thought at the time that the wealthy Texas had no brother or sister living. Mrs. Rena Hawkins has a half-brother, W. H. Franks of Dukes, Okla., who is in no way related to Callens. Mr. Franks, who is the editor of a newspaper at Dukes, Okla., had not seen Mrs. Hawkins since the death of her father in 1893. He did not know whether she was living or

(By Associated Press.)

(BULLETIN.)

Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Gen. Villa was forced by hunger and thirst and lack of ammunition to abandon his attack on Agua Prieta, and this afternoon moved his troops back toward Anavacachi Pass.

Funston Would Do Battle.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 3.—President Wilson and Secretary Garrison are today considering whether to authorize Major General Funston to cross the Mexican border, if he finds it necessary to do so to save Douglas, Arizona, from the Mexican gun fire.

Secretary Garrison refused to confirm the report that Gen. Funston has asked for such authority. Gen. Funston has already the authority to return any fire from across the border.

Bullets Clip Merely Across Water. Douglas, Ariz., Nov. 3.—Bullets kicked up dust close to General Funston and Brigadier General Thomas F. Davis as they strolled through the danger zone.

In view of the fact that sustained artillery fire across the border might seriously damage Douglas, houses on the exposed mesa facing the boundary line today were ordered cleared of occupants.

CLUB; NOTE

Those who attend the meeting of the Young Men's Club, held last night at the club, were well repaid for their attendance, because of the nature of the session. Dr. L. G. Roberts was present at the meeting, and placed before the members of the club a proposition, which if carried out, will be a splendid boost for the city as a health resort. The secretary of the club was instructed to correspond with some of the leading base ball clubs of the country, with a view of pointing out the advantages of this city, as headquarters for their spring training camps. R. G. Stiffley of the music committee stated that the band would soon begin to give some big indoor concerts and entertainments.

Officers nominated for the club for the new year, same to be elected at the first meeting night in December, follows: President, Lloyd Leonard.

E. E. Parsons, Fred W. Green, Fred Soehl and J. H. Cravens. For vice president: T. H. Harmon, Ben Weinberger and Marley P. Smith. For secretary, Harry J. Low, W. C. Freeman, M. A. Rouch and C. A. Marr. For treasurer, Clifford T. Eisen-schmidt.

SUIT ON FORFEITURE OF BOOZE BOND

Judge Huston opened the November term of district court this morning with a jury hearing testimony in a suit on the forfeiture of a bond in an old booze case against Lew Green. Joe Herber and Dan Dyche are defendants. The bond covered the appearance of Lew Green for trial in the old superior court. Green was unable to appear when his case was called, having in the meantime been arrested on a charge of murder. The bond is $500.

WABASH RAILROAD CAN-NOT OPERATE IN MISSOURI

(By Associated Press.) Jefferson City, Mo., Nov. 3.—License for the Wabash Railroad company, now an Indiana corporation, to operate in Missouri, was refused by the secretary of state of Missouri today. The statute provides that no corporation, not chartered under the Missouri laws, shall be authorized to carry passengers or freight in the state. Officials of the road said the Wabash would be operated in the state under its constitutional rights.

REPRESENTATIVES OF CLUBS AT NOWATA SESSIONS

Two hundred and fifty delegates to the biennial convention of the Oklahoma Federation of Women's clubs have registered for the convention, which is now on at Nowata. Those in charge estimate that the attendance will be about 500.

Mrs. Charles R. Hume, president of the state federation, is in charge and received a telegram from Mrs. Percy Pennybacker of Austin, Texas, in which Mrs. Pennybacker states that she will be present throughout the convention. Mrs. T. R. Miller of Newton, Kan., president of the federation in Kansas; Mrs. J. T. Atkins and Mrs. M. Mueser of Parsons, Kan., both prominent club women, are at the meeting.

New York, Nov. 3.—Republicans in Tuesday's election retained control of the lower house of the legislature, although they lost one assemblyman. They also elected a majority of the mayors chosen in cities of the state, in addition to defeating woman's suffrage by a vote of two hundred and ten thousand. The voters also rejected the new state constitution.

Samuel W. McCall's plurality for governor of Massachusetts is 6,636.

The republicans retained control of the Massachusetts legislature. The republicans also elected the mayor in Philadelphia and gained two state senators and two members of the assembly in New Jersey.

Ohio rejected prohibition by a majority of between thirty and forty thousand.

In New York, former Congressman William S. Bennett, a republican, was elected in the twenty-third district to succeed the late democratic congressman, Jacob Golden.

Republicans will succeed republicans in the thirty-first and thirty-sixth congressional districts of New York and the twenty-fourth district of Pennsylvania.

Elections in ten states yesterday emphatically defeated the women suffrage amendments in New York, Mas-
